

Colfax launches colfaxcorp.com website

Global Colfax Brand Adds Value for Customers

RICHMOND, VA – November 28, 2006 – Colfax Corporation, the parent company for leading brands such as Allweiler and IMO, announced today the launch of its new website, Colfaxcorp.com. The site is a result of the company's focus on elevating the Colfax brand as the home for the world's best fluid-handling solutions.

"The new Colfax website brings our leading pump brands and our critical fluid-handling expertise to our customers simply and effectively," said John Young, president and CEO. "The site represents our new brand focus, unifying our well-known product brands under one banner and providing our customers with added value and support wherever they are located throughout the world."

The new Colfax website is organized so that users can find what they need quickly. Sectioned by application (commercial marine, oil & gas, etc.), pump technology, product brand and geographic area, the site enables visitors to zero in on the Colfax solutions that can best help their businesses and their customers' businesses. Colfax customers around the world will have easy access to the company's many global resources.

ABOUT COLFAX CORPORATION – Colfax Corporation is a world leader in the manufacture of fluid-handling products including positive displacement industrial pumps and valves used in oil & gas, power generation, marine and a variety of other applications.
